Actual future performance could differ materially from these forward-looking statements and financial information and risks may vary or change from time to time.

These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Prospectus. The Fund does not intend to update the forward-looking statements contained in this Prospectus to reflect any change in its expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, subject to compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and/or any regulatory or supervisory body or agency.

However, the Fund Manager will seek to inform all Shareholders of any material changes of which it becomes aware as soon as reasonably practicable. By accepting an investment in the Fund, Shareholders confirm they have read and understood the underlying investment restrictions as summarized here and as contained in the Master Fund Prospectus (as amended from time to time).

The investment objective, strategy and restrictions of the Fund are further described in the section headed "Key Terms of the Fund".

3. Base Currency of the Fund

US Dollars.

4. Related Party Transactions, Best Execution and Fair Allocation

4.1 As required pursuant to the CIR, the Fund Manager is under an obligation to ensure that any Related Party Transaction is on terms at least as favourable to the Fund as any comparable arrangement on normal commercial terms negotiated at arm's length with an independent third party. The annual report of the Fund will set out the total value of any Related Party Transactions, their nature and the identities of the Related Parties with whom such transactions were made.

4.2 The Fund Manager is under an obligation to ensure that:

- (A) when executing or procuring execution of trades for or on behalf of the Fund, the transactions are executed:
 - (1) as soon as reasonably practicable after a decision to effect a transaction has been made; and

5. General

- 5.1 The investment restrictions apply as at the date of the relevant transaction or commitment to invest compared against the latest available Net Asset Value of the Fund. In case of passive breach of the investment restrictions, i.e. if any of the investment restrictions are exceeded as a result of changes in the value of any Investments, reconstructions or amalgamations, payments out of the assets of the Fund or redemptions of Shares, the Fund Manager is not immediately required to sell applicable Investments. However, for so long as those limits are exceeded, the Fund Manager will not commit the Fund to acquire any further Investments subject to the relevant restriction and will take all reasonable steps, taking into account the interests of the Shareholders, to restore the position so that the limits are no longer exceeded.
- 5.2 The realisation of the assets of the Fund in anticipation of the termination of the business of the Fund (the "Realisation") shall be managed by the Fund Manager and with the approval of the Directors, and be deemed to constitute the ordinary business of the Fund. RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should give careful consideration to the following risk factors in evaluating the merits and suitability of an investment in the Fund. Investors should be aware that the value of Shares may fall as well as rise, and past performance is not an indicator of future results and any such purchase should be made only after consultation with independent qualified sources of investment, legal and tax advice. There can be no assurance that the investment strategy of the Master Fund will be successful. Please note that the following discussion of risk factors does not purport to be a complete or exhaustive explanation of the risks involved in investing in the Fund and the Master Fund. Prospective investors must also review the risk factors provided in the Master Fund Prospectus.

1. Certain Risks Related to the Master Fund

An investment in the Fund will entail substantially the same risks as an investment in the underlying Master Fund. For more information about these risks, please see the Master Fund Prospectus, including the risks set forth under “Risk Descriptions” therein. Each prospective investor should carefully review the Master Fund Prospectus and the other material documents in relation to the Master Fund with the prospective investor’s legal, accounting, business, investment, pension, and tax advisors before subscribing for Shares in the Fund. These documents are available upon request from the Fund Manager.

An investment in the Fund is not the same as a direct investment in the underlying Master Fund. See “Certain Risks Related to the Master Fund – Deviation Between the Performance of the Fund and the Master Fund” below. The references to the Master Fund Prospectus and other information about the Master Fund herein are not an offering of shares in Master Fund but are being supplied to provide important information related to an investment in the Fund, which will in turn invest substantially all of its assets in the Master Fund.

As a unitholder in the Master Fund, the Fund will be subject to the terms of the Master Fund, including, but not limited to, bearing its pro rata portion of the fees and expense reimbursements of the Master Fund. For more information, please see the relevant fees and expenses descriptions in the Master Fund Prospectus.

All investments risk the loss of capital, and may not be able to recoup their investments.

No guarantee or representation is made that the Master Fund will be able to implement its investment strategy, achieve its investment objectives, be profitable, or avoid substantial losses, or that its investment strategy will be successful.

The following risk factors, which do not purport to be complete and are only illustrative of the types of risks associated with an investment in the Fund, should be carefully considered and evaluated before making an investment in the Fund. Because the Fund will invest substantially all of its investable assets in the Master Fund, an investment in the Fund involves substantially all of the risks of investing in the Master Fund in addition to those risks particular to the Fund and its operation as a “Feeder Fund”. The Master Fund may purchase certain instruments or utilize certain investment techniques that carry specific risks.

Accordingly, an investment in the Fund involves considerations and risk factors that prospective investors should consider before subscribing. Furthermore, the Master Fund Manager may pursue investment strategies or techniques not described in the Master Fund Prospectus, and the Fund Manager will not have knowledge of, or the ability to control, the Master Fund Manager’s pursuit of such investment strategies. No prospective investor should subscribe for Shares without carefully reviewing and evaluating this Prospectus as well as the Master Fund Prospectus.

1.1 Investment of Substantially All Assets in the Master Fund

- (A) In addition to the risks detailed in this Prospectus, because the Fund's investment objective is to invest substantially all of its assets in, and conduct its investment strategy through, the Master Fund, prospective Investors should also, as noted above, carefully consider the risks that accompany an investment in the Master Fund. Prospective investors should also review the risks factors generally applicable to the Master Fund as described in the Master Fund Prospectus. The risks factors described in the Master Fund Prospectus with respect to the Master Fund and an investment therein apply generally to the Fund and the subscription for Shares in the Fund.
- (B) The returns of the Fund will depend almost entirely on the performance of its investment in the Master Fund, and there can be no assurance that the Master Fund will be able to implement its investment objective and strategy. Certain ongoing operating expenses of the Fund, which will be in addition to those expenses borne by the Fund as an investor in its Master Fund (e.g., the Master Fund's management fees, organizational expenses, investment expenses, operating expenses and other expenses and liabilities borne by investors in the Master Fund), generally will be borne by the Fund and the with a corresponding impact on the returns to the Shareholders. Such additional expenses of the Fund will reduce the Fund's performance relative to the Master Fund.
- (C) Although the Fund will be an investor in the Master Fund, Shareholders in the Fund will not themselves be investors of the Master Fund and will not be entitled to enforce any rights directly against the Master Fund and the Master Fund investment manager, or assert claims directly against the Master Fund, the Master Fund Manager or their affiliates. The Fund Manager is not the management company or investment manager of the Master Fund and does not have any control whatsoever over its trading strategies or policies. None of the Fund, the Fund Manager, or any of their affiliates will take part in the management of the Master Fund or have control over its management strategies and policies. The Fund is subject to the risk of bad judgment, negligence, or misconduct of the Master Fund Manager.
- (D) The terms of the Master Fund are subject to change. There can be no assurances that the management and/or investors in the Master Fund will not further amend the Master Fund Prospectus or the other governing documents of the Master Fund. Neither the Fund nor the Fund Manager will have the ability to unilaterally block any amendment of the Master Fund Prospectus or other Master Fund's governing documents. Neither the Fund nor the Fund Manager will have any liability or responsibility to any Shareholder for any changes to the terms of the Master Fund.
- (E) The Fund does not own portfolio investments directly but is an investor in the Master Fund, which is managed by a different investment manager who manages the acquisition and dispositions of the Master Fund's investments. The Fund serves as a "Feeder Fund" by investing substantially all of its assets in units of the Master Fund. Subscriptions and repurchases by Shareholders are dependent upon the Fund's ability to effect corresponding subscriptions and redemptions with the Master Fund. The management and affairs of the Master Fund are governed by the Master Fund Manager. The rights of the Fund as investor in the Master Fund are generally exercisable by the Fund Manager and are governed by the jurisdiction of organization of the Master Fund, but such rights are limited and not as effective as if the Fund invested directly in portfolio investments.

1.2 Deviation Between the Performance of the Fund and the Master Fund

Although the Fund invests substantially all of its assets in the Master Fund, its performance will not be identical to the returns achieved by the Master Fund. The costs and expenses applicable to an investment in the Fund itself (including all fees, costs and expenses charged to the Fund) is likely to underperform the Master Fund. This will result from time to time and over time in deviations between the performance of the Fund and the Master Fund.

1.3 Lack of Diversification

The Fund intends to invest substantially all of its assets in the Master Fund. Accordingly, the assets of the Fund are subject to greater risk of loss than if they were more widely diversified. Poor performance of the Master Fund will cause poor performance of the Fund.

1.4 No Diligence of Master Fund

The Fund has been formed specifically to invest in the Master Fund. The Fund Manager does not intend to conduct investment or operational due diligence with respect to the Master Fund and its target investments. Similarly, the Fund Manager will not perform any due diligence on or otherwise gauge the effectiveness of the Master Funds' investment objective, strategy, programs or processes. Accordingly, there is a risk that the Fund Manager may not detect potential conflicts of interest, fraudulent behaviour or investment, administrative, or operational weaknesses with respect to the Master Fund, any of which may give rise to substantial losses.

2. Risks Associated with the Management of the Fund and the Master Fund

2.1 Reliance on Management

The Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager will provide investment management services in respect of the Fund and the Master Fund, respectively. The Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager depend on the services of a number of key persons and the loss of any such person's services could have a materially adverse effect on the Fund or the Master Fund.

2.2 Experience of the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager

There can be no assurance that those persons engaged in managing the assets of the Fund and the Master Fund will possess all the skills necessary successfully to carry out the investment and divestment strategy of the Fund and the Master Fund. If the Fund Manager or the Master Fund Manager determines there is a need to engage additional personnel to carry out the investment strategy of the Fund or the Master Fund, respectively, they will pursue persons with experience in what it regards as relevant areas, but such pursuits may not be fruitful or may not result in obtaining the experience needed to cause the Fund's and the Master Fund's investments to be successful or to avoid losses.

2.3 Lack of Predictability. No Operating History of the Fund

Past performance of the Fund Manager or any of its affiliates, employees or representatives or any other person is not indicative of future results of the Fund and no assurance can be given that the Fund's investment objectives will be achieved or that investors in the Fund will receive a return of any of their investment. The Fund is a newly created investment vehicle with no prior operating history.

2.4 Reliance on the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager

Decisions with respect to the investment of the Fund's and Master Fund's capital will be made by the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager, respectively. Shareholders will have no right or power to take part in the management of the Fund nor the Master Fund. Shareholders have no opportunity to select or evaluate the investments or strategies. All the investments and strategies of the Fund and the Master Fund are selected by the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager, respectively. As a result, the success of the Fund and the Master Fund for the foreseeable future will depend largely upon the financial skills and expertise of key individuals of the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager and their ability to source, select, complete and realise appropriate investments. Accordingly, no purchase of the Shares should be made unless prospective investors are willing to entrust all aspects of the management and investments of the Fund to the Board and the Fund Manager, and of the Master Fund to the Master Fund Manager. In addition, past performance of the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager is not necessarily indicative of the future or the likely performance of the Fund Manager, the Master Fund Manager and the funds under their management.

2.5 Reliance on Information Received from the Master Fund and the Master Fund Manager

The Fund Manager has no means of pre-emptively and independently verifying the information supplied to it by the Master Fund and the Master Fund Manager, including valuations and estimates of valuations (and subsequent potentially material revisions to such valuations or estimates) of the Fund's investment in the Master Fund. All information prepared by the Fund and the Fund Manager, and provided to Shareholders generally will be based on information received from the Master Fund and the Master Fund Manager. There can be no assurance that such information will be accurate. The Fund Manager is entitled to rely conclusively on valuations provided to it by the Master Fund and the Master Fund Manager (including, but not limited to, the calculation of all fees, expenses and allocations thereof), and shall not be liable to existing or former Shareholders for its reliance on any erroneous valuations or calculations provided by the Master Fund or the Master Fund Manager or any other service provider thereto.

2.6 Limited Recourse to the Fund Manager

- (A) Under the Management Agreement, the Fund Manager shall not be liable to the Fund or any shareholder of (or investor in) the Fund or otherwise for any error of judgment or loss suffered by the Fund or any such Shareholder or investor in connection with the subject matter of the Management Agreement, or any matter or in the course of the discharge of the Fund Manager's functions thereunder, howsoever, any such loss may have occurred unless such loss arises from gross negligence, wilful default or fraud in the performance or non-performance by the Fund Manager or persons it has designated of its obligations or functions. The Fund Manager shall not be liable for any indirect opportunity, consequential or special loss or damage (including loss of profits) suffered or incurred by any person howsoever arising.
- (B) The Management Agreement limits the circumstances under which the Fund Manager can be held liable to the Fund. The Fund Manager generally will not be held liable with respect to its actions or inactions unless they constitute gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

2.7 Limitations on Liability. Indemnification

- (A) The Articles set forth the circumstances under which certain parties are to be entitled to be indemnified by the Fund in the case of any costs, losses and expenses to which they may be or become subject by reason of their activities on behalf of the Fund, provided that they will not be indemnified in respect of any matter resulting from their fraud, gross negligence or wilful default. The Management Agreement also contains rights of indemnity for the Fund Manager and its affiliates.
- (B) As a result, the Fund and Shareholders may have a more limited right of action in certain cases against these persons than they might otherwise have. Additionally, if a claim is made against an indemnified party, the indemnified party may be entitled to be indemnified by the Fund, in which case the investments of the Fund would have to be used to indemnify such indemnified party for any amounts incurred in connection with the claim.

3. General Risks

3.1 Segregation of Assets and Liabilities in Funds

The Assets and Liabilities of the Fund, as incorporated cell, are segregated from any assets and liabilities of another cell of the Fund Platform and absolutely protected from the Shareholders and creditors of such other cell who are not creditors in respect of the Fund and who accordingly are not entitled to have recourse to the Assets attributable to the Fund.

3.2 In-Kind Distributions

On a redemption of Shares, the Fund, subject to the prior consent of a Shareholder, may proceed with a redemption in kind (in specie) in accordance with applicable law and the Articles. Assets distributed to a Shareholder upon redemption may not be readily marketable and may have to be held for an indefinite period of time.

3.3 Risk Arising From Other Classes

Classes will not be ring-fenced from each other. A creditor of the Fund will not generally be bound to satisfy its claims related to obligations attributable to a particular Class from such Class. Rather, such creditor generally may seek to satisfy its claims from the assets of the Fund as a whole. Thus, if a creditor's claims relating to a particular Class exceed the Net Asset Value attributable to that Class, the remaining capital of the Fund will be subject to such claim.

3.4 Risk of Loss of Investment

No guarantee or representation is made that the Fund's investment programme will be successful and that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. Investors could experience a partial or total loss of subscription proceeds. Investors' investment and their returns are NOT guaranteed by the Fund Manager (including its holding companies, subsidiaries, associates or affiliates), or by the Fund.

3.5 Risks of Investments Generally

- (A) All investments risk the loss of capital. No guarantee or representation is made that the Fund's and the Master Fund's investment program will be successful. The Fund's and the Master Fund's investment program may involve, without limitation, risks associated with limited diversification and high concentration, leverage, investments in speculative assets and the use of speculative and possibly untested investment strategies and techniques, interest rates, currencies, volatility, tracking risks in hedged positions, security borrowing risks in short sales, credit deterioration or default risks, systems risks and other risks inherent in the Fund's and the Master Fund's activities. Certain investment techniques of the Fund and the Master Fund's (e. g., use of leverage directly or indirectly through leveraged investments) can, in certain circumstances, magnify the impact of adverse market moves to which the Fund or the Master Fund may be subject. In addition, the Fund's and the Master Fund's investments may be materially affected by conditions in the financial markets and by overall economic conditions occurring globally and in particular countries or markets where the Fund or the Master Fund may invest its assets. Some of these risks cannot or will not be hedged.

- (B) The Fund Manager's and the Master Fund Manager's methods of minimising such risks may not accurately predict future risk exposures. Risk management techniques are based in part on the observation of historical market behaviour, which may not predict market divergences that are greater than historical indicators. Also, information used to manage risks may not be accurate, complete or current, and such information may be misinterpreted.

3.6 No Operating History

The Fund is newly established and has no operating history. The success of the trading and investment activities of the Fund will depend almost entirely on the Fund Manager's ability.

3.7 Other Institutions May Fail

The institutions with which the Fund and the Master Fund do business, or which provide services to the Fund or the Master Fund, directly or indirectly, may encounter financial difficulties that impair the operational capabilities or the capital position of the Fund or the Master Fund.

3.8 Redemption Risk

The Fund may compulsorily redeem, in whole or in part, a Shareholder's Shares. Voluntary redemptions are permitted only on certain days after provision of due notice, and, subject to the Companies Law, the IC Regulations, the ICC Regulations, the CIL and the CIR, may be subject to redemption control mechanisms. In addition, redemption of Shares may be suspended from time to time in the circumstances described in the Articles. Investors should also be aware that in the event of excessive redemption requests, the Fund reserves the right to defer such requests and/or allow redemption on a pro rata basis.

3.9 Hedging Transaction May Increase Risk of Capital Losses

The Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager may utilise a variety of financial instruments for investment and risk management purposes. While the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager may enter into hedging transactions to seek to mitigate risk, such transactions may result in a worse overall performance for the Fund and the Master Fund than if it had not engaged in any such hedging transactions. Moreover, the Fund and the Master Fund are always exposed to certain risks that cannot be hedged, such as credit risk, relating both to particular securities and counterparties.

3.10 Market Disruptions

The Fund and the Master Fund may incur significant losses in the event of disrupted markets and other extraordinary events in which historical pricing relationship (on which the Master Fund Manager may base a number of its trading positions) become materially distorted. The risk of loss from pricing distortions is compounded by the fact that in disrupted markets, many positions become illiquid, making it difficult or impossible to close out positions against which the markets are moving.

3.11 Market Risk

- (A) The success of the Fund may be dependent upon conditions in the global financial markets and economic conditions throughout the world that are outside the Fund's and the Master Fund's control and difficult to predict, such as interest rates, availability of credit, inflation rates, economic uncertainty, changes in laws (including laws relating to taxation of the Fund's or the Master Fund's investments), trade barriers, commodity prices, currency exchange rates and controls, pandemics and national and international political circumstances (including wars, terrorist acts or security operations). These factors may affect the level and volatility of securities prices and the liquidity of the Fund's and the Master Fund's investments. Volatility or illiquidity could impair the Fund's and the Master Fund's performance or result in losses. The Fund and the Master Fund may maintain substantial trading positions that can be adversely affected by the level of volatility in the financial markets. Unpredictable or unstable market conditions may result in reduced opportunities to find suitable investments to deploy capital and make it more difficult to exit and realise value from existing investments, which could materially adversely affect the Fund's and the Master Fund's performance.
- (B) Financial markets are increasingly more volatile. Wide swings in market prices that have been a feature of smaller and less developed markets are also becoming common in major financial markets. In many instances, market prices defy rational analysis or expectation for prolonged periods and are influenced by movements of large funds as a result of short-term factors, counter-speculative measures or other reasons. Market volatility of a large enough magnitude can sometimes weaken what is deemed a sound fundamental basis for investing in a particular market. Investment expectations may therefore fail to be realised in such instances.
- (C) In addition, during such periods, financing and merger and acquisition activity may be greatly reduced, making it harder and more competitive to find suitable event-driven opportunities. Also, during periods of adverse economic conditions or during a tightening of global credit markets, the Fund and the Master Fund may have difficulty obtaining funding for additional investments at attractive rates.

3.12 Force Majeure Risk

Force majeure is the term generally used to refer to an event beyond the control of the party claiming that the event has occurred, including acts of God, fire, flood, earthquakes, war, terrorism, pandemics and labour strikes. Some force majeure events may adversely affect a party's ability to perform its obligations until it is able to remedy the force majeure event. In some cases, agreements entered into by either the Fund or Master Fund in connection with investments (for example construction contracts) could be terminated if the force majeure event is so catastrophic as to render it incapable of remedy within a reasonable, pre-agreed time period.

3.13 Terrorism / Military Risk

Terrorist attacks have caused instability in the global financial markets and may generate global economic instability. The threat of terrorism and the impact of actual or potential military or other action have led to and will likely lead to increased volatility in supply, demand, and/or prices for electricity, ethanol/biodiesel, coal, oil and gas, construction materials, land, and housing and could affect the Fund's and the Master Fund's ability to operate, Net Asset Valuation, performance, and/or financial results. As a result of such a terrorist attack, terrorist activities (including the threat or heightened security against a potential threat), or actual or potential military or other action in general, the Fund or the Master Fund may not be able to obtain insurance coverage and other endorsements at commercially reasonable prices or at all. A terrorist attack actual or potential military or other action may result in liability far in excess of available insurance coverage and have adverse consequences for the Fund or the Master Fund, insurance may be unavailable in the market or be prohibitively expensive. Even if insurance is purchased, there is no guarantee that the insurer will not dispute the payout as to what is classified as covered.

3.14 Emerging Markets Risks

The Master Fund may invest in credit securities and stocks listed/unlisted on the securities exchanges of emerging markets. Investment in the markets of such countries may be subject to foreign exchange controls, governmental policy, and less transparency and regulation compared to the more established, major securities markets. The liquidity and/or bid/offer spreads on such markets may affect the ability of the Master Fund to deal efficiently on such markets. The value of the assets of the Fund will therefore indirectly be exposed to any downturn in economic or political conditions in the relevant countries.

3.15 Portfolio Investments May Be Volatile

- (A) The value of the securities in which the Master Fund will invest may be volatile. Furthermore, the Fund will be subject to the risk that inflation, economic recession, changes in the general level of interest rates or other market conditions over which the Fund Manager will have no control may adversely affect the operating results of the Fund.
- (B) As the redemption price of the Shares is tied to the value of the underlying assets of the Fund and, ultimately, of the Master Fund, it should be noted that the price at which the Shares may be redeemed may be more or less than the price at which they were subscribed for them depending on whether the value of the underlying assets has appreciated or depreciated between the subscription date and the redemption date.

3.16 Equity Securities

The Fund and the Master Fund may invest in, amongst other instruments, equities, equity-linked and equity-related securities. Equity securities fluctuate in value in response to many factors, including the activities and financial condition of individual companies, the business market in which individual companies compete, industry market conditions, interest rates and general economic environments. As a result, the Fund and the Master Fund may suffer losses if they invests in equity instruments of issuers whose performance diverges from the Fund Manager's and the Master Fund Manager expectations or if equity markets generally move in a single direction and the Fund or the Master Fund has not hedged against such a general move. In addition, events such as domestic and international political instability, terrorism and natural disasters may be unforeseeable and contribute to market volatility in ways that may adversely affect investments made by the Fund and the Master Fund.

3.17 Fixed Income Securities

The Master Fund may invest in bonds or other fixed income securities, including, without limitation, commercial paper and "higher yielding" (including non-investment grade and, therefore, higher risk) debt securities. The Master Fund and, consequently, the Fund will therefore be subject to credit, liquidity and interest rate risks. Higher-yielding debt securities are generally unsecured and may be subordinated to certain other outstanding securities and obligations of the issuer, which may be secured on substantially all of the issuer's assets. The lower rating of debt obligations in the higher-yielding sector reflects a greater probability that adverse changes in the financial condition of the issuer or in general economic conditions or both may impair the ability of the issuer to make payments of principal and interest. Non-investment grade debt securities may not be protected by financial covenants or limitations on additional indebtedness. In addition, evaluating credit risk for debt securities involves uncertainty because credit rating agencies throughout the world have different standards, making comparison across countries difficult. Also, the market for credit spreads is often inefficient and illiquid, making it difficult to accurately calculate discounting spreads for valuing financial instruments. It is likely that a major economic downturn could adversely affect the ability of the issuers of such securities to repay principal and pay interest thereon and increase the incidence of default for such securities.

3.18 Interest Rate Risks

The Master Fund's investments are subject to interest rate risks. To the extent prevailing interest rates change to a larger extent or in a different way other than anticipated by the Fund Manager and the Master Fund Manager, the Master Fund and, ultimately, the Fund could suffer significant financial losses. The Master Fund's and the Fund's hedging may not cover all possible interest rate path movements.

3.19 Convertible Securities

The Master Fund may invest in convertible securities, securities that may be exchanged or converted into a predetermined number of the issuer's underlying shares or the shares of another company or that are indexed to an unmanaged market index at the option of the holder during a specified time period. Convertible securities may take the form of convertible preferred stock, convertible bonds or debentures, stock purchase warrants, zero-coupon bonds or liquid-yield option notes, stock index notes, mandatories, or a combination of the features of these securities. Prior to conversion, convertible securities have the same general characteristics as non-convertible debt securities. As with all debt securities, the market value of convertible securities tends to decline as interest rates increase and conversely, increase as interest rates decline. Convertible securities, however, also appreciate when the underlying common stock appreciates, and conversely, depreciate when the underlying common stock depreciates.

3.20 Currency Forward Contracts

The Master Fund may enter into foreign currency forward contracts (agreements to exchange one currency for another at a future date) to manage currency exchange rate risks, to protect against adverse changes in exchange rates and to facilitate transactions in foreign securities. However, there can be no assurance that foreign currencies forward contracts hedging strategies will be available to the Fund or that any such strategy that the Fund uses will achieve its desired result. Foreign currency forward contracts involve a risk of loss to the Master Fund and, ultimately, the Fund if the Master Fund fails to predict accurately the direction of currency exchange rates. For example, the Master Fund may experience a loss if it increases its exposure to a foreign currency and that currency's value in relation to the U.S. dollar subsequently falls. In addition, forward contracts are not guaranteed by an exchange or clearinghouse. Therefore, a default by the forward contract counterparty may result in a loss to the Master Fund for the value of unrealised profits on the contract or for the difference between the value of its commitments, if any, for purchase or sale at the current currency exchange rate and the value of those commitments at the forward contract exchange rate.

3.21 Investment in Exchange-Traded Funds (“ETFs”)

The Master Fund may invest in ETFs and may incur fees and expenses in connection with any such investments, including, without limitation, brokerage commissions and fees and expenses charged by the ETF and its service providers. If the Master Fund wishes to realise all or a portion of its investment in an ETF, it must generally sell its interest on a securities exchange or other trading venue at a price set by the market. There can be no assurance that the market price for such interest will reflect its underlying net asset value, and such interest may trade at a significant discount to the net asset value for extended periods of time or at all times. There can be no assurance that an active trading market in the interest of an ETF will develop or will be sustained, and if no such market is developed or sustained, the price and liquidity of such investment may be adversely affected. In addition, although ETFs are generally designed to track a specific index, there can be no assurance that an ETF will track its underlying index closely or with a high degree of correlation. This risk is heightened in the case of ETFs tracking indices that are comprised of issuers with limited liquidity, or that are based on certain commodities.

3.22 Futures

The Master Fund may employ futures contracts, or options on such contracts, which involve the future purchase or sale of securities, financial instruments or market baskets of securities, such as various securities indices, as part of the Master Fund Manager’s hedging strategy, or opportunistically as modest directional investments. Use of futures contracts and options thereon involve the contractual commitment to purchase or sell the underlying instrument at a future date. The eventual price of such instrument may be influenced by a broad variety of market, economic and issuer-specific events and risks, many of which may be difficult to predict or assess. Futures trading involves relatively small invested capital relative to risk exposure and therefore can increase, perhaps significantly, portfolio volatility and exposure to loss. Futures trading can also be highly leveraged. Furthermore, futures and/or the Master Fund’s futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

3.23 Options

The Fund and the Master Fund may purchase and sell (“write”) options on securities, currencies and commodities on national and international exchanges and over-the-counter markets. The seller of a put option assumes the risk of a decline in the market price of the underlying instrument below the exercise price of the option. The buyer of a put option assumes the risk of losing its entire investment in the put option. If the buyer of the put holds the underlying instrument, the loss on the put will be offset in whole or in part by any gain on the underlying instrument. The writer of a call option which is covered (e. g., the writer has a long position in the underlying instrument) gives up the opportunity for gain on the underlying instrument above the exercise price of the option. The seller of an uncovered call option assumes the risk of a theoretically unlimited increase in the market price of the underlying instrument above the exercise price of the option. The buyer of a call option assumes the risk of losing its entire investment in the call option. Options may be cash settled, settled by physical delivery or by entering into a closing purchase transaction. In entering into a closing purchase transaction, the Fund may be subject to the risk of loss to the extent that the premium paid for entering into such closing purchase transaction exceeds the premium received when the option was written.

3.24 Illiquid Securities

The assets of the Fund and Master Fund may, at any given time, include securities and other financial instruments or obligations that are thinly-traded or for which no market exists and/or which are restricted as to their transferability under applicable securities laws. The sale of any such investments may be possible only at substantial discounts, and it may be extremely difficult to accurately value any such investments. In addition, the Fund may face problems in liquidating such investments until the investment becomes (or is deemed to become) marketable or liquid.

3.25 Custody Risks

- (A) There are risks involved in dealing with custodians who hold assets of the Fund or of the Master Fund and who settle the trades of the Fund or of the Master Fund. Securities and other assets deposited with custodians may not be clearly identified as being assets of the Fund or of the Master Fund, and hence the Fund or the Master Fund may be exposed to a credit risk with regard to such parties. In some jurisdictions, the Fund may only be an unsecured creditor of its custodian in the event of bankruptcy or administration of such broker. Further, there may be practical or timing problems associated with enforcing the Fund's and the Master Fund's rights to its assets in the event of the insolvency of any such party (including sub-custodians or agents appointed by the custodian in jurisdictions where sub-custodians are not available).
- (B) Recent apparently significant losses incurred by many hedge funds in relation to the bankruptcy and/or administration of financial institutions illustrate the risks incurred in both derivatives trading and custody and prime brokerage arrangements. Assets deposited with custodians, which are fully paid, may be held in protected cell safe custody in accordance with the custodian agreements. Assets held as collateral by the custodians in relation to facilities offered to the Fund or the Master Fund and assets deposited as margin with the custodians may therefore be available to the creditors of such persons in the event of their insolvency.

3.26 Investment Concentration

The investment strategy of the Fund does not mandate diversification and the Fund will have all or a high percentage of its assets invested in the Master Fund (although that vehicle does have multiple positions across asset classes, sectors and countries). Such lack of diversification could result in either large gains or losses depending on the performance of the Master Fund. Accordingly, the investment portfolio of the Fund may be subject to more rapid change in value than would be the case if the Fund was required to maintain a wide diversification among funds, companies, securities or types of securities.

3.27 Liquidity Risk and Liquidity risk management systems and controls

There is a risk that a security may be difficult or impossible to sell at the time and price the Fund Manager or the Master Fund Manager wishes. The Master Fund Manager, acting in respect of the Master Fund, may have to accept a lower price for the security, sell other securities instead, or forego a more attractive investment opportunity. All of this could hamper the management or performance of the Master Fund and, ultimately, the Fund. Pursuant to the CIR, the Fund Manager must ensure that the Fund has sufficient liquidity to meet redemption requests as stated in the Articles of Association and this Prospectus, as appropriate to the nature and risk profile of the Fund. The Fund Manager may, in its discretion, and in accordance with applicable law and the Fund's Articles and this Prospectus, put in place detailed policies and strategies, whether referred to in this Prospectus or supplemental thereto, which may:

- (A) include appropriate liquidity buffers and limits on illiquid assets, and the availability of other resources, such as lines of credit;
- (B) take into account:

- (1) the underlying classes of assets of the Fund;
 - (2) if such assets are traded on-exchange, the liquidity in those markets;
 - (3) investors' redemption patterns and behaviour; and
 - (4) any other factors that affect or potentially affect the liquidity of the relevant classes of assets;
- (C) include appropriate mechanisms to measure, monitor, stress test and manage the controls referred to in (a) to assess whether they are adequate, and are operating as intended in both normal and stressed conditions and the procedures available to the Fund Manager to address any gaps and failures identified; and
- (D) include powers available to the Fund Manager to address liquidity stresses which pose, or have the potential to pose, risks to its ability to effect redemptions (such as the power to impose antidilution levies, create side pockets to ring-fence illiquid assets and create redemption gates or suspend redemptions) and clear triggers and procedures for exercising such powers.

3.28 Political Risk

The value of the Fund's and the Master Fund's assets will be affected by uncertainties, such as political developments, changes in government policies, taxation and currency repatriation rules and restrictions on foreign investment in some of the currencies in which the Fund and the Master Fund may invest. These risks must be borne by the Fund.

3.29 Settlement Risk

The Fund and the Master Fund will be exposed to a credit risk on parties with whom they trade and will also bear the risk of settlement default. Market practices in relation to the settlement of securities transactions and the custody of assets could provide increased risk. In particular, some of the markets in which the Master Fund may invest do not provide for settlement on a delivery versus payment basis.

3.30 Changes in Tax Status and Legislation

Any change in the Fund's or the Master Fund's tax status or in taxation legislation could affect the value of investments and revenue therefrom and the returns to investors. Information in this Prospectus concerning taxation is based on current law and practice which may be subject to change. Investors are advised to consult their local tax experts.

3.31 Currency and Foreign Exchange Risks

- (A) The Master Fund may invest in securities denominated, or whose prices are quoted in local currencies other than the Base Currency of the Fund, the prices of which securities and other instruments are determined with reference to such other local currencies. The Master Fund's investments that are denominated in local currency are subject to the risk that the value of a particular currency will change in relation to one or more other currencies. Among the factors that may affect currency values are trade balances, the level of short-term interest rates, differences in relative values of similar assets in different currencies, long-term opportunities for investment and capital appreciation and political developments.

- (B) Any foreign exchange risk relating to arbitrage strategies undertaken by the Master Fund, the rationale for which is not foreign exchange based, may be hedged wherever practicable, either by using hedging or by acquiring options. It is however unlikely to be practicable to hedge all currency risks and to that extent foreign exchange risks will remain.

3.32 Risks Related to Valuation of the Master Fund's Assets

The Master Fund's assets are generally valued based on quotes provided by exchanges, brokers and other third party sources. However, these values may not reflect the actual prices which would be realised upon a sale of a particular asset and may affect the valuation of units of the Master Fund and, ultimately, Shares of the Fund. Valuations of assets undertaken or provided by the Master Fund will be conclusive and binding on all Shareholders.

3.33 Valuation and Accounting

Investors should note that, under IFRS, investments should be valued at fair value, and bid and offer pricing is considered to be representative of the fair value of investments. The use of bid prices for asset positions and ask prices for liability positions is permitted, but is not required and some market conventions price securities at mid-price. Furthermore, in the absence of a market price for a security the Fund may use estimates from sources which the Board or the Fund Manager believes are reliable. IFRS does not preclude the use of mid-market pricing or other pricing conventions that are used by market participants as a practical expedient for fair value measurements within a bid-ask spread. However, under the valuation basis described in the section headed "Calculation of Net Asset Value", listed investments are generally expected to be measured at the official close price but there could be instances or circumstances where such last traded price used is not within the bid-ask spread as required under IFRS, which may lead to a different valuation had the valuation been performed in accordance with IFRS. In addition, preliminary expenses are to be amortised over a period of time exceeding one (1) year, which is not in accordance with IFRS. To the extent that the valuation basis adopted by the Fund or the Master Fund deviates from IFRS, the Fund may be required to include a reconciliation note in the annual accounts of the Fund to reconcile values arrived at by applying its valuation rules. If the Net Asset Value of the Fund is not adjusted in preparation of the annual accounts, non-compliance with IFRS may result in the Fund's auditors qualifying their opinion on those annual accounts depending on the nature and level of materiality of the non-compliance.

3.34 Soft Winding-Down

If the Directors, in consultation with the Fund Manager, decide that the investment strategy or operation of the Fund as a whole is no longer viable, they may resolve that the Fund be managed with the objective of realising assets in an orderly manner and distributing the proceeds to Shareholders in such manner as they determine to be in the best interests of the Fund. Subject to any applicable law restrictions, this may include without limitation, compulsorily redeeming Shares, paying any dividend proceeds in specie and/or declaring a suspension while assets are realised. This process is integral to the business of the Fund and may be carried out without recourse to a formal liquidation under the Companies Law or any other applicable bankruptcy or insolvency regime, but shall be without prejudice to the right of the holder of the Management Share to place the Fund into liquidation, in accordance with the constitutional documents of the Fund and applicable law.

3.35 Effects of Health Crises and Other Catastrophic Events

Health crises, such as pandemic and epidemic diseases, as well as other catastrophes such as natural disasters, war or civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, power outages and other unforeseeable and external events, that result in disrupted markets and/or interrupt the expected course of events, and public response to or fear of such crises or events, may have an adverse effect on the operations of and, where applicable, investments made by the Fund and the Master Fund. For example, any preventative or protective actions taken by governments in response to such crises or events may result in periods of regional, national or international business disruption. Such actions may significantly disrupt the operations of the Fund, the Master Fund, the Fund Manager, the Master Fund Manager and the other service providers to the Fund and Master Fund. Further, the occurrence and duration of such crises or events could adversely affect economies and financial markets either in specific countries or worldwide. The impact of such crises or events could lead to negative consequences for the Fund and the Master Fund, including, without limitation, significant reduction in the NAV of the Fund and/or the Master Fund, reduced liquidity of the Master Fund's investments, restrictions on the ability of the Master Fund to value its investments and the potential suspension of the calculation of NAV and the suspension of capital commitments in accordance with this Prospectus and the Master Fund Prospectus.

3.36 Conflicts of Interest May Arise

The Fund Manager may be subject to a variety of conflicts of interests. See the section headed "Conflicts of Interest" below.

3.37 Feeder Fund Costs

The Fund is a feeder fund investing almost entirely in a single underlying vehicle (the Master Fund). This will lead to higher fees than investing in the Master Fund directly and may present a delay in settlement of the underlying investments depending on cut-off times and policy of both the Fund and the Feeder Fund.

THE FOREGOING LIST OF RISK FACTORS DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE OR EXHAUSTIVE ENUMERATION OR EXPLANATION OF THE RISKS INVOLVED IN AN INVESTMENT IN THE FUND OR THE MASTER FUND. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR ADVISERS BEFORE DECIDING TO INVEST IN THE FUND.

- 2.3 The Subscription Price excludes any Placement Fee.

3. Minimum Investment

A minimum subscription amount and a minimum holding amount may be applicable in respect of any Class, as further described in the section headed "Key Terms of the Fund". The minimum subscription amount and the minimum holding amount exclude any Placement Fee.

4. Restrictions on Issue

- 4.1 Only persons who satisfy the requirements of this Prospectus and who are not Prohibited Persons (referred to herein as "Eligible Investors") may subscribe for or hold Shares in the Fund and may include retail investors. The Directors have the right to compulsorily redeem all Shares held by a Shareholder who is not or who ceases to be an Eligible Investor or becomes a Prohibited Person.
- 4.2 For these purposes, an Eligible Investor is a person who is not a Prohibited Person and to whom the issue or transfer of Shares, or where the holding of Shares by such person, would not (i) constitute a breach of the laws of any relevant jurisdiction; (ii) be contrary to the regulations of any relevant government authority; (iii) give rise to circumstances (whether taken alone or conjunctively with other persons or any other circumstances appearing to the Directors to be relevant) which, in the sole and conclusive opinion of the Directors, might result in the Fund and/or its Shareholders as a whole incurring any liability for taxation or suffering any other regulatory, pecuniary, legal or material administrative disadvantage that the Fund and/or its Shareholders might not otherwise have suffered or incurred.

- 4.3 By subscribing for Shares, an applicant represents and warrants that, among other things: (i) they have the knowledge, expertise and experience in financial matters to evaluate the investment in the Shares; (ii) they have reviewed this Prospectus and are aware of the risks inherent in investing in the Fund and the method by which the assets of the Fund are held and/or traded; (iii) they can bear the risk of loss of its entire investment; and (iv) they are an Eligible Investor.
- 4.4 The Directors and the Fund Manager (on behalf of the Directors) reserve the right to reject any application in whole or in part without assigning any reason, notwithstanding that the applicant or subscriber is an Eligible Investor.

5. Subscription Matters

- 5.1 Subscription application forms are available from the Administrator and the Fund Manager.
- 5.2 The Subscription Price is payable in full on application.
- 5.3 Subscribers must complete and sign the application form and mail the same to the Administrator with a copy to the Fund Manager. Alternatively, subscribers may email the application form. Applicants should be aware of the risks associated with sending documentation in this manner. An email delivery report retained by the applicant shall not be considered as an acknowledgement from the Administrator that it has received a subscription and shall not constitute proof of such receipt. In case there is no formal confirmation that the application form has been received on email from the Administrator within three (3) Business Days of submission, the Subscriber should assume that the application form was not received.
- 5.4 None of the Fund, the Fund Manager, or the Administrator accepts any responsibility for any loss caused as a result of non-receipt or illegibility of any application sent by email or for any loss caused in respect of any action taken as a consequence of such email instructions believed in good faith to have originated from properly authorised persons. The applicant shall notify the Administrator as soon as practicable if there is any change in the information provided by the investor in the subscription form.
- 5.5 The subscription monies in cleared funds (and net of bank charges) should be remitted by telegraphic transfer to the Fund's account in accordance with the transfer instructions set out in the application form. All application moneys must originate from an account held in the name of the applicant. No third party payments shall be accepted.
- 5.6 A confirmation notice will be issued as soon as practicable to successful applicants after the Subscription Day.
- 5.7 A subscription application, once submitted, can only be withdrawn with the consent of the Directors or the Fund Manager (on behalf of the Directors).
- 5.8 No Shares will be issued unless and until the relevant subscription monies, net of fiscal and bank charges, have been received in cleared funds in the Fund's account by the required day and time. Application moneys must be paid in the Base Currency of the relevant Class or any other currency acceptable to the Directors. Application moneys other than in the Base Currency of the relevant Class may be converted into the relevant Base Currency and all bank charges and other conversion costs will be deducted from the subscription monies prior to investment in Shares.

- 5.9 The Placement Fee (if any) will be deducted from the subscription amount payable by the applicant or Shareholder before the corresponding number of Shares are issued and allocated to the applicant.
- 5.10 The Directors may, in their sole discretion, and provided that the applicant has made prior arrangements with the Directors, accept an in specie payment for an application for subscription of Shares in lieu of cash in whole or in part, provided that the in specie asset must be previously confirmed as acceptable to the Directors. The value of assets transferred to the Fund is subject to the valuation by the Fund Manager or under the Fund Manager's supervision.
- 5.11 Shares will be in registered form and share certificates will not be issued. Shares will be issued up to four (4) decimal places and be rounded down and any fractional amounts remaining will be retained by the relevant Class of Shares. Application moneys representing smaller fractions of a Share will be retained for the benefit of the Fund.
- 5.12 No Shares will be issued during any period of suspension.

6. Redemption

- 6.1 Subject to any applicable redemption control mechanisms, Shares may be redeemed on a Redemption Day, subject to receipt of a complete redemption notice ("Redemption Notice") by the Cut-Off Time.
- 6.2 The Redemption Price per Share is the Net Asset Value as at the relevant Redemption Day.
- 6.3 A complete Redemption Notice which is not received by the Cut-Off Time will be held over to the next Redemption Day (the "Next Redemption Day") and redeemed at the Redemption Price applicable on the Next Redemption Day.
- 6.4 Redemption Notices may be submitted by email to the Administrator as indicated on the Redemption Notice, to be received prior to the Cut-Off Time, but redemption proceeds will not be remitted until all documentation required pursuant to the due diligence identification requirement and any other documents requested by the Administrator, the Fund Manager or the Directors have been received.
- 6.5 Shareholders are reminded that if they choose to send Redemption Notices by email, they bear their own risk of such notices not being received. None of Fund, the Fund Manager, the Administrator nor their respective delegates accept any responsibility for any loss caused as a result of non-receipt of any Redemption Notice sent by email. A Shareholder shall not be entitled to withdraw a request duly made unless agreed by the Directors, or the Fund Manager on behalf of the Directors.
- 6.6 In certain circumstances (please refer to the section below headed "Suspension or Deferral"), the Fund reserves the right, to suspend or defer such redemption requests and/or to allow redemption on a pro rata basis. In such cases, the Directors shall be entitled, after consultation with the Fund Manager, to prescribe how unfulfilled requests will be handled.
- 6.7 Partial redemption is allowed, subject to any minimum redemption amount ("Minimum Redemption Amount") and the applicable Class minimum holding amount ("Minimum Holding Amount").

- 6.8 Redemptions are also subject to any applicable Redemption Gate. In such event, the Directors shall be entitled, after consultation with the Fund Manager, to reduce all but not some of such requests pro-rata so that they cover no more than the limitation, and prescribe how unfulfilled requests will be handled. Any requests to redeem which are not effected will be deferred and will be given priority over subsequent Redemption Requests received for the next Redemption Day.
- 6.9 It is the intention of the Directors to effect redemptions in cash. However, as prescribed by the Articles and upon request of a Shareholder, the Board has the power to divide in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Fund and appropriate such assets in satisfaction or part satisfaction of the Redemption Price and any other sums payable on redemption or purchase, as it may determine. The valuation of the assets to be distributed shall be confirmed by a report of the Auditor. All costs and expenses which would otherwise have been payable by the Fund in respect of any such transfer of assets to that Shareholder shall be discharged by or on account of that Shareholder.
- 6.10 Redemption proceeds paid in cash will be paid in the Base Currency of the relevant Class. No third-party payments will be made. All registration fees and other charges which would otherwise be payable by the Fund in respect of the redemption shall be payable by the redeeming Shareholder. Redemption proceeds will be determined after deducting the fiscal and sales charges and other expenses which the Fund would incur in realising assets or closing out positions relating to Investments in order to meet the relevant redemption request and to reflect any discrepancy between the book valuation of the asset or Investment and the realised value of that asset or Investment and any applicable Redemption Fee and Management Fee in relation to the redemption of those Shares.
- 6.11 Redemptions are also subject to any provision for liabilities or reserves established by the Directors for any estimated expenses or contingent liabilities, taking into account the interests of the Shareholders as a whole.
- 6.12 Redemption proceeds will be paid within such period as may be specified in the section headed 'Key Terms of the Fund', subject to receipt of all documents to the satisfaction of the Fund Manager and the Administrator. In certain cases however, there may be a delay in payment on redemptions as further discussed below under the sub-sections headed "Delay in Payment on Redemption" and "Suspension or Deferral". The telegraphic transfer will be made at the cost and risk of the Shareholder redeeming the Shares and be transferred to the pre-designated bank account of the redeeming Shareholder (or in the case of joint Shareholders, the account designated in relation to the Shareholder who is named first in the register of members), or to such other account as the Fund Manager may agree.
- 6.13 No dealing in or redemption of Shares in the Fund shall be effected during any period of suspension.
- 6.14 The name of a redeeming Shareholder will be removed from the register of shareholders in relation to such Shares being redeemed upon redemption proceeds being paid in respect thereof.

7. Compulsory Redemption

- 7.1 The Directors may compulsorily redeem all or part of any Shareholder's holding of Shares at any time and without any reason upon not less than five (5) Business Days prior written notice, provided the Directors, in their sole discretion, determine that such compulsory redemption is necessary if the Shares are acquired or held by a person in the circumstances set out below, they may compulsorily redeem the relevant Shares without prior written notice:

- (A) any person in breach of the law or requirements of any country or governmental authority including, where relevant, as applicable to the Master Fund;
- (B) any person or persons in circumstances (whether directly or indirectly affecting such person or persons and whether taken alone or in conjunction with any other persons, connected or not, or any other circumstances appearing to the Directors to be relevant) which in the opinion of the Directors, might result in the Fund or the associates or agents of the Fund or any member incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary disadvantage which the Fund or the associates or agents of the Fund or any member might not otherwise have incurred or suffered;
- (C) any person which may result in the Fund being required to comply with any registration or filing requirement in any jurisdiction with which it would not otherwise be required to comply;
- (D) any person such as to be harmful or injurious to the business or reputation of the Fund or any of its service providers;
- (E) any person the holding of Shares of which is less in value (other than as a result of depreciation in the value of his holding) or lower in number than the minimum value or number determined by the Directors and/or required by applicable law from time to time;
- (F) any person who is not or who ceases to be an Eligible Investor; or
- (G) any person, or persons, in circumstances where he fails to provide the information and documentation requested by the Fund, the Directors, the Fund Manager and/or the Administrator upon request within reasonable time for the purpose of compliance with the legal, government or regulatory requirement of any relevant jurisdiction (including any disclosure or notification requirements under any applicable laws, regulations and best practices).

7.2 The Redemption Day for this purpose will be the compulsory redemption date determined by the Directors, and the net redemption proceeds to be received will be calculated and paid in the same manner as that for voluntary redemption by a Shareholder, and be subject to the same qualifications as are applicable.

8. Suspension or Deferral

8.1 Subject to the CIL and the CIR, and taking into account the interests of the Shareholders, the Fund Manager may temporarily suspend the calculation of the Net Asset Value of Shares and consequently suspend the subscription and redemption of Shares during that period, and/or delay the payment of redemption proceeds to persons who have redeemed Shares, during the following exceptional circumstances:

- (A) during which any stock exchange, commodities exchange, futures exchange or over-the-counter market on which any significant portion of the Investments are listed, quoted, traded or dealt in is closed (other than customary weekend and holiday closing) or trading on any such exchange or market is restricted or suspended;
- (B) when circumstances exist as a result of which in the opinion of the Fund Manager, it is not reasonably practicable for the Fund to dispose of Investments or as a result of which any such disposal would be materially prejudicial to the Shareholders of the Fund;

- (C) when a breakdown occurs in any of the means normally employed in ascertaining the value of investments or the Net Asset Value or when for any other reason the value of any of the investments or other assets of the Fund, the Net Asset Value of the Fund or the Net Asset Value per Share cannot in the opinion of the Fund Manager reasonably or fairly be ascertained;
- (D) during which the Fund is unable to repatriate funds for the purpose of making payments on the redemption of Shares or during which any transfer of funds involved in the realisation or acquisition of investments or payments due on redemption of Shares cannot in the opinion of the Fund Manager be effected at normal rates of exchange;
- (E) when the business operations of the Fund Manager or the Administrator in relation to the operations of the Fund are substantially interrupted or closed as a result of or arising from pestilence, pandemics, acts of war, special military operations, terrorism, insurrection, revolution, civil unrest, riot, strikes or acts of God; or
- (F) when the Fund Manager determines in its sole and absolute discretion that it is in the best interests of the Shareholders or the Fund to do so.

8.2 The Fund Manager will continue any suspension implemented pursuant to paragraph 8.1 only for so long as it reasonably believes that the suspension is in the interests of the Shareholders.

8.3 No Shares may be issued or redeemed during such a period of suspension. All reasonable steps will be taken to bring any period of suspension to an end as soon as possible.

8.4 Upon suspension of dealings in Shares, the Fund Manager will, in writing, notify the DFSA immediately, and the Shareholders as soon as practicable, of the suspension and its reasons for doing so.

8.5 The Board has the power to:

- (A) suspend the redemption rights of any Shareholder if the Board deems it necessary to do so to comply with any anti-money laundering law or regulations or any other laws or regulations applicable to the Fund or a service provider to the Fund; or

The value of the Assets is the net value of the Assets after deducting any expenses and liabilities. Any charges that were paid, or would be payable, on acquiring or disposing of the asset must be excluded from the value of that asset.

The Net Asset Value of each Share of each Class or series shall be calculated by the Administrator under the supervision of the Fund Manager as at the Valuation Day on each Valuation Day, except when calculation of the Net Asset Value has been suspended under the provisions of the Articles or this Prospectus, and on such other occasions as may be required by the Articles or this Prospectus.

3. The Fund Manager must:
 - (A) ensure that at each Valuation Day there are at least as many Shares in issue of any class as there are Shares registered to Shareholders of that class; and
 - (B) not do, or omit to do, anything that is or is reasonably likely to confer on itself a benefit or advantage at the expense of a Shareholder or prospective Shareholder.

If the Fund Manager has not complied with the above requirements or there is any other valuation error, it must correct the error as soon as possible and must reimburse the Fund any costs it may have incurred in correcting the position, subject to any reasonable minimum level for such reimbursement, set at 0.5% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Net Asset Value shall be expressed in the Base Currency applicable to the relevant Class and shall be determined on the basis of IFRS.

The Net Asset Value shall be calculated as at the Valuation Point on each Valuation Day in respect of all the assets and liabilities of the Fund. The Net Asset Value per Class shall be calculated by determining the proportional share of the assets of the Fund attributable to that Class less the proportional share of the liabilities of the Fund attributable to that Class at the Valuation Point on the Valuation Day. The Net Asset Value per Share of any Class is determined by dividing the Net Asset Value of the Class by the number of Shares in issue in such Class as at close of business on the relevant Valuation Day. The Net Asset Value is rounded to the nearest four decimals of the relevant Base Currency or such other decimal places as the Directors may determine from time to time.

For the purpose of calculating the number of Shares in issue or deemed to be in issue, Shares for which applications have been duly made shall be deemed to be not in issue on the relevant Valuation Day and Shares to be redeemed or purchased in accordance with the Articles shall be deemed to be in issue on the relevant Valuation Day. Fractions up to 4 decimal places may be issued for Shares.

Any notification or certification as to the Net Asset Value, the Subscription Price or Redemption Price given in good faith by or on behalf of the Administrator and/or the Fund Manager is binding on all parties.

3.2 For the purpose of calculating the value of the net assets of the Fund:

- (A) the value of any cash on hand or on deposit, bills, demand notes, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash dividends and interest declared or accrued and not yet received shall be deemed to be the full amount thereof unless the Fund Manager shall have determined that any such deposit, bill, demand note or account receivable is not worth the full amount thereof in which event the value thereof shall be deemed to be such value as the Fund Manager shall deem to be the reasonable value thereof;
- (B) except in the case of any interest in an Investment Fund, such as the Master Fund, to which sub-paragraph (E) of this paragraph applies, and subject to sub-paragraphs (D) and (I) of this paragraph, all calculations based on the value of Investments quoted, listed, traded or dealt in on any stock exchange, commodities exchange, futures exchange or over-the-counter market shall be made by reference to the last traded price (or, lacking any sales or in the case of fixed income, at the mean between the last available bid and asked prices) on the principal exchange for such investments as at the close of business in such place on the day as of which such calculation is to be made; and where there is no stock exchange, commodities exchange, futures exchange or over-the-counter market all calculations based on the value of investments quoted by any person, firm or institution making a market in that investment (and if there shall be more than one such market maker then such particular market maker as the Fund Manager may designate) shall be made by reference to the mean of the latest bid and asked price quoted thereon; provided always that if the Fund Manager in its discretion considers that the prices ruling on an exchange other than the principal exchange provide in all the circumstances a fairer criterion of value in relation to any such investment, they may adopt such prices;
- (C) if and whenever the quoted Investment is suspended from trading and no price is available, the price of an Investment shall be either the closing price on the last full trading day of that Investment before its suspension, or such price as the Fund Manager may in its sole discretion from time to time determine to be appropriate;
- (D) except in the case of any interest in an Investment Fund to which sub-paragraph (E) of this paragraph applies, unquoted Investments shall be valued as follows:
 - (1) in the case of unlisted equity securities, at cost and thereafter with any reduction or increase in value (as the case may be) as the Fund Manager shall in its absolute discretion deem appropriate in the circumstances;
 - (2) in the case of unlisted securities (other than equities) for which there is an ascertainable market value, generally at the quotation provided by any person, firm or institution making a market in the investment on or before the day preceding the relevant Valuation Day;

- (3) in the case of unlisted securities (other than equities) for which there is no ascertainable market value, at cost, plus interest (if any) accrued from purchase to (but excluding) the relevant Valuation Day and plus or minus the premium or discount (if any) from par value written off over the life of the security;
 - (4) if no Net Asset Value, bid or ask prices or price quotation are available for an asset held by the Fund, the value of the relevant asset shall be determined from time to time in such manner as the Fund or the Fund Manager shall determine provided that any asset of the Fund which is not listed, quoted or dealt in on any securities exchange or over the counter market shall be valued at the lower of cost and the Fund's or the Fund Manager's estimation of the realisable value of such asset;
- (E) interests in Investment Funds, such as the Master Fund, shall be valued at their net asset value, as reported by such Investment Funds or estimates provided by an underlying manager. For these purposes the net asset value shall be the last available net asset value per unit or share in such Investment Funds or (if the same is not available) the last available bid price for such unit or share, in each case as provided by the administrator or other agent of such Investment Funds or by an estimate available from a source believed to be reliable in the opinion of the Fund Manager or the Board if to use this estimate would provide a more accurate valuation basis for the Fund;
- (F) any value (whether of a security or cash) otherwise than in the Base Currency shall be converted into the Base Currency at the rate (whether official or otherwise) which the Fund Manager shall in its absolute discretion deem appropriate to the circumstances having regard inter alia to any premium or discount which they consider may be relevant and to costs of exchange;
- (G) for the purposes of ascertaining quoted, listed, traded or market dealing prices, the Fund, the Directors, the Fund Manager, the Administrator, their agents and any person to whom they may have delegated responsibility for calculating the Net Asset Value, shall be entitled to use and rely upon mechanised or electronic systems of pricing dissemination with regard to the pricing of assets held by the Fund and the prices provided by any such system will be deemed to be an accurate price for that asset;
- (H) where there has been entered into a forward contract for the sale or purchase of any currency, the currency required to be delivered by the Fund shall be included in the assets of the Fund at the price payable to the Fund under such contract and there shall be included in the liabilities of the Fund the cost of purchasing as advised to the Fund as at the relevant Valuation Point the contract quantity of that currency on the date for performance of the contract;
- (I) notwithstanding the foregoing, the Directors or the Fund Manager may, at their absolute discretion, permit such other method of valuation of pricing or valuation which, in their opinion, better reflects the fair value, or establish special valuation rules and methods in relation to a particular Fund and/or a particular asset or class of assets including valuing assets using estimates and on a hold-to-maturity basis; and
- (J) preliminary expenses (including the expenses incurred by the Fund Manager and other parties in connection with the initial issue of Shares) may be amortised over such period as the Directors may determine from time to time.

- 3.3 “Last traded price,” as referred to in paragraph (2) above, refers to the last traded price reported on the relevant exchange for the day, commonly referred to in the market as the “settlement” or “exchange price”, and represents a price at which members of the exchange settle between themselves for their outstanding positions. Where a security has not traded on a given date, the last traded price for such security will be the “exchange close” price as calculated and published by the relevant exchange in accordance with its local rules and customs or from a pricing source reasonably believed by the Fund Manager to be reliable and in the best interests of Shareholders of the Fund. Fixed income securities should be valued at mid-price with income accrued.
- 3.4 The annual accounts of the Fund will be drawn up in accordance with IFRS. However, the above valuation policies may not necessarily comply with IFRS. For example, under IFRS, investments should be valued at fair value. The use of bid prices for asset positions and ask prices for liability positions is permitted, but is not required. IFRS does not preclude the use of mid-market pricing or other pricing conventions that are used by market participants as a practical expedient for fair value measurements within a bid-ask spread. However, under the valuation basis described above, listed investments are generally expected to be measured at the official close price but there could be instances or circumstances where such last traded price used is not within the bid-ask spread as required under IFRS, which may lead to a different valuation had the valuation been performed in accordance with IFRS.
- 3.5 To the extent that the valuation basis adopted by the Fund (as appropriate) deviates from the IFRS, the Administrator or, as the case may be, the Fund Manager may make necessary adjustments in the annual audited statements for the financial statements in compliance with IFRS. The Directors have considered the impact of such non-compliance and do not expect this issue to materially affect the Net Asset Value of the Fund.
- 3.6 The Fund Manager has appointed the Administrator under the Administration Agreement to determine the Net Asset Value of the Fund and the Net Asset Value per Share of each Class and, if applicable, series, subject to the overall supervision and direction of the Fund Manager. In determining the Net Asset Value of the Fund and the Net Asset Value per Share of each Class and series, the Administrator will follow the valuation policies and procedures adopted by the Fund as set out above.
- 3.7 For the purpose of calculating the Net Asset Value of the Fund, the Administrator shall, and shall be entitled to, rely on, and will not be responsible for the accuracy of, financial data furnished to it by reputable market makers and/or independent third-party pricing services. The Administrator, its agent or delegate, may also use and rely on industry standard financial models or other financial models approved by the Fund Manager in pricing any of the Fund’s securities or other assets. If and to the extent that the Fund Manager is responsible for or otherwise involved in the pricing of any of the Fund’s portfolio securities or other assets, the Administrator and its agent or delegate may accept, use and rely on such prices in determining the Net Asset Value of the Fund and shall not be liable to the Fund in so doing.

WINDING-UP OF THE FUND

1. The Fund may be wound up:
 - (A) by order of the court as provided in the CIL and the DIFC Insolvency Law 2004;
 - (B) in the manner and circumstances provided in the Articles;
 - (C) in other circumstances provided for in the DFSA Rules; OR
 - (D) upon the winding-up or liquidation of the Master Fund.

2. If the Fund Manager considers that the Fund is not commercially viable or that the purpose of the Fund has been accomplished or cannot be accomplished, it may, in accordance with the CIL and the CIR, take steps to wind up the Fund. In such case, the Fund Manager will give to the Shareholders of the Fund and to the DFSA a notice in writing explaining the proposal to wind up the Fund including explaining how the Fund's purpose has been accomplished or why that purpose cannot be accomplished and informing the relevant Shareholders of their rights to call a Shareholders' meeting to consider the proposed winding up of the Fund and to vote on any Special Resolution Shareholders propose about the winding up of the Fund, and informing the Shareholders that the Fund Manager is permitted to wind up the Fund unless a meeting is called to consider the proposed winding up of the Fund within twenty-eight (28) days of the Fund Manager giving the notice to the Shareholders of the Fund as may be the case. If no such meeting is called within those twenty-eight (28) days, the Fund Manager may proceed to wind up the Fund.

3. Upon the winding-up of the Fund, the proceeds from the liquidation of the assets of the Fund shall be applied by order of priority:
 - (A) to the payment to any party any unpaid fees, costs or expenses payable by the Fund and then unpaid (and retaining adequate provision for all liabilities properly so payable and for the cost of the winding up); and
 - (B) to the payment to the Shareholders the balance of the proceeds, which balance shall be apportioned between the Shareholders in accordance with the Net Asset Value of the Shares in the Fund held by each of them.

4. In addition, the Fund Manager must, in the following circumstances (and not otherwise), cease to issue, sell, cancel or redeem Shares in, or to invest or borrow for, the Fund and proceed to wind up the Fund in accordance with the CIL and CIR:
 - (A) if, in response to a request made to the DFSA by the Fund Manager or a Director for the removal of the Fund from the list of registered funds, the DFSA has agreed, albeit subject to there being no material change in any relevant factor, that, on the conclusion of the winding up of the Fund, the DFSA will accede to that request;
 - (B) the expiration of any period specified in the Articles as the period at the end of which the Fund is to terminate (if any); or
 - (C) the effective date of a duly approved transfer scheme, which is to result in the Fund being left with no property.

DIFC LAW CONSIDERATIONS

1. DIFC

The DIFC is a financial free zone with its own civil and commercial laws established in 2004 in the Emirate of Dubai. The DIFC has been granted authority to self-legislate in civil and commercial areas. Companies operating in the DIFC are subject to the Companies Law. Financial activities in the DIFC are governed by the DIFC Regulatory Law No. 1 of 2004, as amended from time to time (the "DIFC Regulatory Law"), which also governs the operation of the DFSA. Legislation, rules and regulations governing companies incorporated in the DIFC and financial activities in the DIFC are available on the websites of the DIFC and the DFSA at www.difc.ae and www.dfsa.ae, respectively. Neither the Fund nor the Fund Manager have independently verified the information contained on these websites nor can they provide any assurance as to the accuracy or completeness of such information. The information contained on these websites does not form a part of, and is not incorporated by reference into, this Prospectus.

2. DFSA

2.1 The DFSA is a financially and administratively independent body that was established on 13 September 2004 by Law No. 9 of 2004 issued by the Ruler of Dubai. The DFSA acts as the independent financial regulator in the DIFC.

2.2 The DFSA has authority and responsibility for implementing the core financial services related laws that are applicable in the DIFC, including the DIFC Regulatory Law and the CIL. In addition, additional guidance is provided by the DFSA pursuant to the DFSA Rules set out in the "DFSA Rulebook", which comprise subsidiary legislation issued under the DIFC Regulatory Law by the board of directors of the DFSA for the purposes of supplementing any law administered by the DFSA. The DFSA Rulebook is made up of topic-area modules which specify their scope and the audience to whom they apply. The DFSA Rulebook contains additional commentary as mandatory guidance which is designed to assist DIFC participants in complying with their legal and related obligations. Certain other matters that are not DFSA Rules, such as application forms and returns are contained in the DFSA Sourcebook, which also comprises topic-area modules.

3. DFSA Collective Investment Funds Regime and the Markets Law and Regulations

3.1 In 2006, the DFSA introduced the Collective Investment Funds ("CIF") regime to the DIFC. It was established, inter alia, in order to enhance the appeal of the DIFC as a suitable jurisdiction for investment funds, fund managers and other service providers.

3.2 In 2010, significant reforms were made to the DFSA's CIF regime in order to more closely align it with the regimes of more established funds jurisdictions. The reforms, which came into effect on 11 July 2010, were made pursuant to the CIL and the CIR (together with certain related amendments to the DIFC Regulatory Law and other DFSA Rulebook modules issued by the DFSA). On 23 December 2012, the CIL was amended pursuant to DIFC Laws Amendment Law No. 7 of 2012. An updated version of the CIR was issued by the DFSA on 14 July 2013. The CIF regime was further amended pursuant the DIFC Laws Amendment Law No. 1 of 2014, which came into force on 21 August 2014, pursuant to which the CIL and the CIR were amended to reflect, among other things, the introduction of a new type of fund, the Qualified Investor Fund. The CIL and CIR have since been amended a number of times. The latest amendment of the CIL was made by DIFC Law No.5 of 2022 and came into force on 13 October 2022. The latest amendment of the CIR was made by the Collective Investment Rules Module (CIR) Rule-making Instrument (No. 340) 2022 and came into force on 1 January 2023.

3.3 The DIFC Markets Law 2012 (“ML”) and the DIFC Markets Rules of the DFSA Rulebook (“MR”) set out certain requirements that apply to the offering of securities (including debt securities) by a DIFC entity. The ML and MR do not apply to the offering of units in a fund (which is governed by the CIL and the CIR).

4. CIL

4.1 The CIL is one of the core financial services laws issued by the DFSA which applies to the Fund and the Fund Manager. It establishes the type of arrangements that constitute a collective investment fund and sets out the framework for the laws relating to the role and function of a fund manager and the governance of different categorisations of fund. For example, the CIL law categorises funds as either Domestic Funds or Foreign Funds. Domestic Funds can be one of three categories:

- (A) Public Funds – public funds are open to retail investors, and can be marketed by way of a public offer. As public funds are open to retail investors, more extensive regulatory requirements apply to such funds to provide additional protection to retail investors.
- (B) Exempt Funds – exempt funds are open to Professional Clients only, who subscribe for a minimum of US$ 50,000 each in the fund. Distribution is made by way of private placement only.
- (C) Qualified Investor Funds – qualified investor funds are open to Professional Clients only, who subscribe for a minimum of US$ 500,000 each in the fund. Distribution is made by way of private placement only.

5. CIR

5.1 The CIR supplement the CIL and apply to the persons specified within the CIR, including a fund and persons who manage a fund, such as fund managers. To the extent that a CIR Rule imposes an obligation on a fund, each director or person charged with the management of the fund must take reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the obligation. The CIR set out rules that are applicable to certain specialist types of fund, including Islamic funds, hedge funds, private equity funds, property funds (i.e. funds investing predominantly in real estate or real estate-related assets), real estate investment trusts (REITs – a sub-set of property funds), money market funds, feeder funds, master funds, fund of funds and umbrella funds.

5.2 In accordance with CIR, the IC Regulations and the ICC Regulations, the Fund is an investment company and an Incorporated Cell of a Fund Platform. The Fund, being an Incorporated Cell:

- (A) is a separate legal entity to the Incorporated Cell Company and to any other Incorporated Cells of the Fund Platform; and
- (B) does not have a subsidiary or holding company relationship with the Incorporated Cell Company.

5.3 The Incorporated Cell Company, which is the ‘core’ of the Fund Platform, contains the infrastructure needed by the Fund Manager for managing the Fund.

5.4 The Fund Manager is:

- (A) responsible for the sound and prudent operation of the Fund Platform; and

(B) liable for any acts or omissions of the Fund Platform in respect of the Fund.

- 5.5 The CIR also regulate the management and operation of a fund, specifically in relation to general management duties (including duties relating to the valuation of fund assets, any conflicts of interest, meetings of unitholders, approvals and notifications, maintaining records and delegations and outsourcing). In addition, the CIR set out the requirements for the accounting, audit and reporting functions of a fund, as well as detailing the permitted framework for marketing funds.
- 5.6 In order to provide the Shareholders with relevant and up-to-date information about the performance and management of the Fund, the Fund Manager must produce one annual report and interim report in respect of the Fund in accordance with the CIR.
- 5.7 In addition, for further information on the Fund and the Fund Manager's compliance with the CIR, please refer to the "I" section of this Prospectus.

6. DIFC Companies Law and Regulations

- 6.1 The Fund has been incorporated as an open-ended investment company and incorporated cell pursuant to Article 132 of the Companies Law and Regulation 1.12 of the DIFC ICC Regulations and is subject to the requirements and restrictions set out therein. As required by the ICC Regulations, the Fund Manager and the Fund obtained the consent of the DFSA to the incorporation of the Fund as an incorporated cell.
- 6.2 Pursuant to regulation 1.8.1 of the DIFC ICC Regulations, the DFSA may withdraw its consent to the Fund operating as an incorporated cell, if any requirement for the continuation of the consent is no longer satisfied; or if the Fund or any Director, or the Fund Manager or any of its directors, as the case may be (i) has contravened any requirement imposed by or under the Companies Law, the IC Regulations, the ICC Regulations, the Regulatory Law 2004, the CIL or the CIR; (ii) has failed to comply with a condition or restriction in relation to the grant of consent; or (iii) has knowingly or recklessly given the DFSA or to the Registrar of Companies of the DIFC information which is false or misleading in a material particular, or if no activity has been carried on by the Fund for the previous 12 months, or if it is in the interests of the DIFC to revoke the consent in order to protect the interests of Shareholders or creditors, or potential shareholders or creditors, of the Fund.
- 6.3 Upon a revocation of DFSA consent, the DFSA must without due delay inform the Fund in writing of such revocation and, upon the Fund's request, provide reasons for such revocation. The revocation of DFSA's consent may result in the liquidation of the Fund.
- 6.4 Pursuant to regulation 1.9 of the DIFC ICC Regulations, the DFSA may give any direction to the Incorporated Cell Company, the Fund, any Director, the Fund Manager or its directors. Any such direction would be mandatory and failure to comply may result in the DFSA consent to the incorporation of the Fund as an incorporated cell being withdrawn.

7. Money laundering and financial crime regime in the UAE (including in the DIFC)

- 7.1 "Authorised Firms" under the Anti-Money Laundering, Counter-Terrorist Financing and Sanctions Module of the DFSA Rules (the "AML") are required to maintain adequate policies, procedures, systems and controls in place to prevent the activity of money laundering and terrorist financing.
- 7.2 The Fund itself is not a "Relevant Person" for the purposes of the AML. The Fund Manager is an "Authorised Firm" and therefore is bound by the requirements of the AML. In addition to the AML, the Fund Manager and the Fund may be subject to additional obligations under the UAE laws and regulations relating to money laundering and financing of terrorism.

8. Accounting Year/Reports and Other Information to Investors

- 8.1 The Fund's accounting year ends on 31 December in each year. The first set of audited accounts of the Fund will be made up to 31 December 2024.
- 8.2 The accounts in relation to the Fund will be prepared in accordance with IFRS (aside from the note on formation fees which may not comply with IFRS but which Directors have determined is more equitable for investors).
- 8.3 Shareholders may obtain copies of the latest annual audited accounts and semi-annual accounts free of charge upon request and at the registered office of the Fund Manager during normal business hours.
- 8.4 The Fund Manager will also provide a copy of the latest annual report by 30 April of each year and an interim report by 31 August of each year.

9. Material Documents

- 9.1 A number of material documents govern the operation of the Fund, copies of which may be obtained by the Shareholders free of charge from the registered office of the Fund:
 - (A) the Articles of the Fund;
 - (B) this Prospectus;
 - (C) the Key Investor Information Document (KIID) of the Fund;
 - (D) the Master Fund Prospectus;
 - (E) the Master Fund audited annual accounts and reports;
 - (F) the management regulations of the Master Fund; and
 - (G) financial statements and further information contained in the latest annual and semi-annual reports of the Fund.
- 9.2 Shareholders may consult the register of unitholders of the Fund at the registered office of the Fund.

10. Conflicts of Interest

- 10.1 Pursuant to the CIR, Fund Manager must take reasonable steps to ensure that in any dealing in relation to the Assets such dealings do not give rise to a conflict of interest. Where a conflict of interest arises, whether in dealings with Related Parties or otherwise, the Fund Manager must disclose to the Shareholders the nature of the conflict and how the conflict will be managed. In addition, the Fund Manager must take reasonable steps to establish and implement remuneration policies and practices which (a) are consistent with sound and effective risk management of the Fund; and (b) do not, to the extent practicable, encourage risk-taking inconsistent with the investment objectives and risk profile of the Fund.
- 10.2 The Directors, the Fund Manager, Administrator, Custodian and other service providers or their agents or associated parties may from time to time act as director, manager, administrator, custodian, broker, dealer or banker in relation to, or be otherwise involved in or with other funds and clients including those which have similar investment objectives to those of the Fund, or be interested in parties involved in transactions with the Fund, or be interested in or providing services to the Investment Funds or other investments of the Fund, or parties providing other services to the Fund. It is, therefore, possible that any of them may, in the course of business, have potential conflicts of interest with the Fund. Each will, at all times, have regard in such event to its obligations to the Fund and will endeavour to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly and subject to applicable law.

- 10.3 The Fund Manager may act as fund manager and/or investment manager to other funds with the same investment objectives as those of the Fund. The Fund Manager and its affiliates may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures of every kind and description, including: (i) investments for their own account in securities held by the Fund from time to time, and investment advisory or supervisory services with respect to securities or other types of financial investments; or (ii) managing other investment funds or other entities with substantially the same or different objectives. Moreover, the Fund Manager will devote to the Fund only so much of its time as it deems necessary or appropriate in connection with the activities of the Fund.
- 10.4 The Fund Manager may determine that an investment opportunity is appropriate for a particular fund, sub-fund or account that it manages, or for itself, but not for another fund, sub-fund or account. Situations may arise in which investment funds or accounts managed by the Fund Manager or other affiliates have made investments that would have been suitable for investment by the Fund but, for various reasons, were not pursued by, or made available to, the Fund. To the extent that any affiliate invests in a particular investment, the ability of the Fund to invest in the same investment may be adversely affected by any limitation on availability of the investment. In addition, the Fund Manager may be required to choose between the Fund and other advisory clients in allocating investments.
- 10.5 The Fund Manager generally intends to allocate all investment opportunities that may be appropriate for the Fund and other clients in a manner that is fair and equitable to all clients over time taking into account the different investment mandates and investment strategies applicable to such clients, current investment positions of a client, the relative capitalisation and cash availability of a client, investment time horizon and other considerations. In particular, allocations of certain investments may not be made on a pro rata basis, as determined by the Fund Manager in its good faith discretion and based on the foregoing considerations. Circumstances may occur, however, where an allocation could have an adverse effect on the Fund.
- 10.6 The Fund Manager or any of its affiliates may, in certain circumstances, take positions in accounts of other clients opposite to those taken in relation to the Fund and/or take positions in accounts of other clients which involve conflicts or potential conflicts with positions of the Fund. These positions could adversely affect the performance of Investments held by the Fund. The Fund Manager may also decline to make an investment for the Fund out of concern that such investment might harm another client of the Fund Manager or one of its affiliates.
- 10.7 The Management Fee payable to the Fund Manager is payable without regard to the overall success of or income earned by the Fund.
- 10.8 In addition, one or more Directors of the Fund are or may be executives, directors and/or shareholders of the Fund Manager and shareholders of the Fund and may have conflicts of interest in this regard. The duties of the Directors of the Fund to the Fund may compete with or be different from the interests of the Fund's service providers. Only the Directors may terminate the services of any service provider. Furthermore, the Directors may also serve as directors of other investment vehicles and, to the extent that the interests of the Fund and such other investment vehicles are inconsistent, such Directors may have a conflict of interest.

10.9 The Fund Manager shall be entitled to receive or enter into soft dollar commissions/arrangements in respect of the Fund.

10.10 The Fund Manager will endeavour to ensure that conflicts which may arise are resolved fairly and subject to applicable law.

11. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations

11.1 In order to comply with applicable regulations for the prevention of money laundering and combatting financing of terrorism, the Fund, or any person acting on its behalf including the Administrator, may require a detailed verification of the identity of any applicant for Shares and of the source of payment (unless in any case the Fund, or any such person acting on its behalf, is satisfied that an exemption under applicable law applies). Depending on the circumstances of each subscription or transfer, a detailed verification may not be required. In addition, any existing or prospective investors, beneficial owners and transactions counterparties may be subject to screening against national and international lists of sanctions enforced by the UAE.

11.2 In the event of delay or failure by the prospective investor to produce any information required for verification purposes, the Fund, or any person acting on its behalf, may refuse to accept the subscription or register a transfer. If a subscription is not accepted, any funds received by or on behalf of the Fund in connection with that subscription will be returned without interest and at the risk of the applicant/transferee to the account from which such funds were originally debited. If as a result of completing any screening obligations, the Fund, Fund Manager, Administrator or other person acting on their respective behalf identifies a complete or partial match against any relevant sanction list(s), they will be under an obligation to report such match to the relevant authorities, cease any dealings, freeze any relevant funds and assets and comply with the relevant authorities' directions and applicable law.

11.3 The Fund, or any person acting on its behalf, also reserves the right to refuse to make any redemption payment or other distribution to a Shareholder if any of the Directors of the Fund, or any person acting on its behalf, suspects or is advised that the payment of any redemption moneys or other distribution to such Shareholder might result in a breach or violation of any applicable anti-money laundering or other laws or regulations by any person in any relevant jurisdiction, or such refusal is considered necessary or appropriate to ensure the compliance by the Fund, its Directors or any person acting on its behalf with any such laws or regulations in any relevant jurisdiction.

11.4 If any person, resident in the DIFC, including the Fund's legal counsel, or the Fund, and, if applicable, any of its Directors or any person acting on its behalf, knows or suspects that a payment to the Fund (by way of subscription or otherwise) is the proceeds of criminal conduct, such person is required to report such information pursuant to the Proceeds of Crime Law (as revised from time to time) of the DIFC and such report shall not be treated as a breach by such person of any restriction imposed on such person by law or otherwise on the disclosure of information.

12. Applicable Law and Jurisdiction

12.1 Statements made in this Prospectus are based on the laws and practice in force as at the date of publication of this Prospectus in the DIFC.

12.2 All matters relating to the Fund shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the DIFC. The Fund, the Shareholders, and all other relevant parties shall submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the DIFC for these purposes.

13. Use of Personal Data

13.1 A subscriber's personal data may be utilised by the Fund, the Directors, the Fund Manager and/or the Administrator for any of the following purposes:

- (A) to properly identify the subscriber in accordance with anti-money laundering regulatory requirements;
- (B) to properly record the subscriber's interest in the Fund in accordance with relevant corporate laws and regulations;
- (C) to advise the subscriber of matters relating to its investment in the Fund, including current values and changes to Fund documentation etc.; and
- (D) unless the subscriber notifies the Fund or the Fund Manager otherwise, to advise the subscriber of other investment opportunities that may be or become available from the Fund.

13.2 By agreeing to invest in the Fund and by remaining a Shareholder, a subscriber (which includes a Shareholder) acknowledges and accepts that the Fund, the Directors, the Fund Manager and/or the Administrator may hold and process personal data for the purposes outlined above and further acknowledges and accepts that:

KEY TERMS OF THE FUND

1. Investment Objective and Strategy

1.1 Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to invest substantially all of its assets in Amundi Asia Funds - Signature CIO Conservative Fund (the "Master Fund"), a sub-fund of Amundi Asia Funds, a Luxembourg mutual fund (fonds commun de placement) qualifying as undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS). The Master Fund seeks to achieve moderate capital growth through asset appreciation and income accumulation over a mid to long-term investment horizon.

1.2 Investment Strategy of the Master Fund

The Master Fund is a fund of funds that will invest at least 80% of its net assets in UCITS/UCIs.

1.3 Investment Restrictions of the Master Fund

As of the date of this Prospectus, the Master Fund will invest in eligible UCITS/UCIS that are exposed to the following asset classes:

- Between 40% and 70% of its net assets in fixed income (not including money market funds as defined by MMFR). Within this limit, the Master Fund may invest up to 40% of its net assets in non-investment grade debt.
- Up to 55% of its net assets in equities.
- Up to 20% in money market funds.
- Up to 10% of its net assets in liquid alternatives (UCITS/UCIs investing in alternative strategies).
- Up to 10% of its net assets in commodities.

As of the date of this Prospectus, there are no currency constraints to the investments.

The Master Fund may invest up to 60% of its net assets in emerging markets considering combined equity and fixed income assets.

The Master Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in money market instruments and term deposits for investment or treasury purposes.

The Fund shall not be subject to these restrictions for a period of six months from the date of the first subscription in the Fund (the "Ramp-up Period").

Any material change to the Articles or this Prospectus which may adversely affect the rights of Fund Shareholders will be subject to the approval of the Fund Shareholders in accordance with the Companies Law, Companies Regulations, CIL, CIR and the Articles. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not include changes to the underlying investment restrictions of the Master Fund. However, the Fund Manager will seek to inform all Shareholders of any material changes of which it becomes aware as soon as reasonably practicable. By accepting an investment in the Fund, Shareholders confirm they have read and understood the underlying investment restrictions as summarized here and as contained in the Master Fund Prospectus (as amended from time to time).

The investment objective, strategy and restrictions of the Fund are further described in the section headed “Key Terms of the Fund”.

2. Leverage

The Fund will not incur any leverage.

3. Duration

The Fund has an unlimited duration and shall continue until terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Prospectus and the Articles.

4. Dealing

Base Currency	US$
Valuation Day	Each Business Day
Cut-Off Time (subscriptions and redemptions)	2:00pm GST on the Valuation Day
Subscription Settlement Deadline	5:00pm GST Valuation Day
Initial Subscription Price	100 per Share of Classes denominated in USD
Dealing Day	Valuation Day plus one Business Day
Subscription Day	Each Dealing Day
Conversion Day	Shares may be converted on each Dealing Day
Redemption Day	Each Dealing Day
Redemption Settlement Deadline	The Redemption Price will be usually paid in normal circumstances within five (5) Business Days from the relevant Dealing Day

When a Fund buys or sells underlying investments in response to a request for the issue or redemption of Shares, it will generally incur a cost, made up of dealing costs and any indirect costs resulting from the spread between the bid and offer prices of the investment concerned, which is not reflected in the issue or redemption price paid by or to the Shareholders. In circumstances where the Fund Manager is required to sell underlying investments quickly in response to redemption requests, there may be an impact on the sale price that the investments can achieve and any impact on the sale price would be an indirect cost incurred by the Fund. The Fund Manager may recommend to apply a dilution adjustment to prevent dilution of the Fund as explained above and in the scenarios listed below. Rather than reduce the effect of dilution by making a separate charge to Shareholders when they buy or sell Shares in the Fund, the Fund Manager may recommend to the Fund Board of Directors that it moves the price at which Shares are bought or sold on any given day. The single price can be swung higher or lower at the discretion of the Board of Directors on advice from the Fund Manager. This price movement from the basic mid-market price is known as a “Dilution Adjustment”. The amount of the adjustment is paid into the Fund for the protection of continuing Shareholders. Any dilution adjustment applied is included in the price applied to the deal and not disclosed separately. The Dilution Adjustment shall make such reasonable allowance as the Board of Directors, acting through the Fund Manager, determines is appropriate for the typical market spread of the value of the assets of a Fund and the related costs of acquisition or disposal of these assets. The Fund may impose a Dilution Adjustment where the net inflows or outflows of the Fund value on any given day are significant, although it will be imposed where the estimated potential cost to the relevant Fund justifies its application. The Dilution Adjustment may also be applied in the following circumstances: (a) where the Fund is in continual expansion or decline; (b) on the Fund experiencing large levels of net subscriptions or net redemptions relative to its size; (c) in the case of a large deal, being a single deal or group of connected deals where the potential cost to the Fund justifies its application; (d) in circumstances where the Fund, through the Fund Manager, is required to sell underlying investments quickly in response to redemption requests; and (e) in any other case where the Board of Directors is of the opinion that the interests of Shareholders require imposition of a Dilution Adjustment. Dilution is directly related to the inflows and outflows of monies from the Fund and, as such, it is not possible to predict accurately whether dilution will occur at any future point in time. Consequently, it is also not possible to accurately predict how frequently the Fund will need to make such a Dilution Adjustment. The Dilution Adjustment for the Fund may vary over time because it will be calculated by reference to the costs of dealing in the underlying investments, including any indirect costs resulting from dealing spreads between the offer and bid price of the underlying investment, and these can vary with market conditions. The rate of dilution adjustment made from time to time will differ and be dependent on dealing spreads, commissions and taxes and duties on the purchase or sale of investments. The actual applied Dilution Adjustment will vary according to the forecast or actual transaction costs arising.

5. Classes of Shares
